

MUTUAL NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

(Sample / Demo Document — For Testing Purposes Only)

This Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of July 20, 2026 ("Effective Date"), by and between Northbridge Analytics, Inc., with a principal place of business at 412 Cascade Avenue, Suite 300, Portland, OR 97205 ("Northbridge Analytics"), and Fernwood Robotics LLC, with a principal place of business at 88 Harbor Point Road, Newport, RI 02840 ("Fernwood") (each a "Party" and collectively the "Parties").

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to explore a potential business relationship concerning the evaluation, development, and possible integration of data analytics and robotics technologies (the "Purpose"); and

WHEREAS, in connection with the Purpose, each Party may disclose to the other certain confidential and proprietary information; and

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to protect such confidential information from unauthorized use and disclosure as set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Definition of Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" means any and all non-public information disclosed by either Party (the "Disclosing Party") to the other Party (the "Receiving Party"), whether disclosed orally, in writing, electronically, or by any other means, and whether or not marked, designated, or otherwise identified as "confidential," including without limitation:

- (a) business plans, financial information, forecasts, and strategic initiatives;
- (b) technical data, software, algorithms, source code, product designs, specifications, and prototypes;
- (c) customer lists, supplier information, and pricing terms;
- (d) trade secrets, know-how, inventions, and research and development activities; and
- (e) any other information that a reasonable person would understand to be confidential given the nature of the information and the circumstances of disclosure.

2. Exclusions from Confidential Information

Confidential Information does not include information that the Receiving Party can demonstrate by competent written evidence:

- (a) was already known to the Receiving Party without an obligation of confidentiality prior to disclosure by the Disclosing Party;
- (b) was or becomes publicly available through no wrongful act or omission of the Receiving Party;
- (c) was rightfully received from a third party without a duty of confidentiality;
- (d) was independently developed by the Receiving Party without use of or reference to the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information; or

(e) is required to be disclosed by law, regulation, or court order, provided the Receiving Party gives the Disclosing Party prompt written notice, to the extent legally permissible, so that the Disclosing Party may seek a protective order.

3. Obligations of the Receiving Party

The Receiving Party shall: (a) hold the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information in strict confidence and take reasonable precautions to protect it, using at least the same degree of care it uses to protect its own confidential information of similar importance, but in no event less than a reasonable standard of care; (b) not disclose Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party, except to its employees, officers, directors, agents, and professional advisors who have a legitimate need to know such information for the Purpose and who are bound by confidentiality obligations no less protective than those contained herein; (c) use the Confidential Information solely for the Purpose and for no other purpose whatsoever, including without limitation competitive analysis, product development independent of the Purpose, or solicitation of the Disclosing Party's employees or customers; and (d) promptly notify the Disclosing Party in writing upon discovery of any unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information.

4. Term and Survival

This Agreement shall remain in effect for three (3) years from the Effective Date, unless earlier terminated by either Party upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the other Party. Notwithstanding termination or expiration of this Agreement, each Party's obligations with respect to Confidential Information disclosed prior to termination shall survive for a period of five (5) years following the date of disclosure, except that Confidential Information constituting a trade secret under applicable law shall remain protected for as long as it qualifies as a trade secret.

5. Return or Destruction of Materials

Upon the Disclosing Party's written request, or upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, the Receiving Party shall promptly return or, at the Disclosing Party's option, destroy all documents, materials, and other tangible manifestations of Confidential Information, together with all copies thereof, and shall certify such return or destruction in writing if requested. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Receiving Party may retain one archival copy solely for legal compliance purposes, subject to the continuing confidentiality obligations of this Agreement.

6. No License or Transfer of Rights

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as granting any rights, by license or otherwise, to any Confidential Information disclosed hereunder, or to any invention, discovery, patent, copyright, trademark, or other intellectual property right now or hereafter owned, controlled, or licensable by either Party, except the limited right to use such information solely for the Purpose.

7. No Warranty

All Confidential Information is provided "AS IS." Neither Party makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of any Confidential Information disclosed under this Agreement. Neither Party shall be liable to the other for any errors or omissions in the Confidential Information, nor for any actions taken in reliance thereon.

8. Remedies

Each Party acknowledges that unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information may cause irreparable harm to the Disclosing Party for which monetary damages would be an inadequate remedy. Accordingly, in addition to any other remedies available at law or in equity, the Disclosing Party shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief, specific performance, and other equitable remedies to prevent or restrain any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement, without the necessity of posting a bond or proving actual damages.

9. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to its conflict of laws principles. The Parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the state and federal courts located within the State of Delaware for any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement.

10. Dispute Resolution

In the event of any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the Parties shall first attempt in good faith to resolve the dispute through negotiation between authorized representatives. If the dispute is not resolved within thirty (30) days, either Party may pursue any remedy available at law or in equity, including the injunctive relief described in Section 8.

11. Assignment

Neither Party may assign or transfer this Agreement, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of the other Party, except in connection with a merger, acquisition, or sale of substantially all of its assets, provided the assignee agrees in writing to be bound by the terms of this Agreement. Any attempted assignment in violation of this Section shall be null and void.

12. Notices

All notices required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed given upon (a) personal delivery, (b) confirmed transmission by electronic mail, or (c) three (3) business days after deposit with a nationally recognized overnight courier, addressed to the respective Party at the address first set forth above, or such other address as a Party may designate by written notice.

13. Entire Agreement; Amendment

This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous agreements, representations, and understandings, whether written or oral. This Agreement may be amended only by a written instrument signed by authorized representatives of both Parties.

14. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect, and the invalid provision shall be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable while preserving the original intent of the Parties.

15. Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, including by electronic or digital signature, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

16. Export Control

Each Party shall comply with all applicable export control and economic sanctions laws and regulations in connection with its use, disclosure, or transfer of Confidential Information, and shall not export, re-export, or transfer any Confidential Information in violation of such laws, including without limitation the U.S. Export Administration Regulations and regulations administered by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control.

17. No Publicity

Neither Party shall use the other Party's name, logo, or trademarks, or disclose the existence or terms of this Agreement or the fact that discussions are taking place between the Parties, in any public statement, press release, marketing material, or other public disclosure without the prior written consent of the other Party, except as required by applicable law or regulation.

18. Force Majeure

Neither Party shall be liable for any delay or failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement (other than payment obligations, if any) resulting from causes beyond its reasonable control, including without limitation acts of God, natural disasters, war, terrorism, labor disputes, or governmental action.

19. No Waiver

The failure of either Party to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of that provision or of any other provision, nor shall it affect the right of such Party to enforce that or any other provision at a later time.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this Agreement as of the Effective Date first written above.
